The Mexican War not Improbable.

The Greasers Want War to Quell the Turbulence of Their Own People.

They Think Their Country, Even if Whipped, Would be Benefitted by War.

CUTTING.

An American Who has Visited Him Talks on His Case.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Aug. 23.—Mr. Mansfield, long a resident in this city, who carries on heavy mining operations in old Mexico, returned last evening from the Municipal mine in Senora, which he left on Tuesday. On Wednesday he visited Cutting in his cell at Paso del Norte.

"And how is he treated?" inquired a press correspondent.

"Oh, splendidly," was the answer. "The fact is," added Mr. Mansfield, "Cutting is treated more as a guest than a prisoner. He is held as a sort of prisoner of state. He is lightly guarded, has the best at the prison, and I think the Mexican authorities would be glad if he would walk away—and the best of fare."

"What is the state of feeling down there?"

"The war feeling is decidedly on the increase on both sides. The Mexicans are wild for war, and if you could hear them talk, and put any confidence in their statements, you would really think the United States in danger. They say they are much better prepared for war than in '48; that they have larger armies, better disciplined troops, and abler generals. There is a reason for their warlike spirit. It arises not so much from active hostility to our government and to our people, as from their own turbulent condition and the internal dissensions that are distracting their people and paralyzing their general government. The more intelligent Mexicans, who under other conditions would be opposed to war, rather favor it now, as they think it will quiet their own factions and make their own people united and harmonious."

"And how is it on this side?"

"Well, the war feeling is in the ascendant. I hardly know why, except from this fact: American citizens are treated shamefully by the Mexican states and the Mexican general government. Cutting is only the representative of a class. His wrongs are small in comparison to others, and as a consequence there is bad blood and a red-hot feeling against Mexico on this side."

"Do the people down there think there will be war?"

"I think the opinion is quite general. I may say it is the prevalent opinion that the strained relations now existing, caused by the long series of wrongs against our citizens cannot be cured by diplomacy, and that war will result. This is the opinion of intelligent men on both sides, and the belligerent class, much the stronger, want a war."

A RIVER ACCIDENT.

One Man Killed and Another Injured.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—When the ferry boat New Brunswick, on the Pennsylvania railroad ferry, came into the Desbrosses street slip at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, the engines refused to work at the moment the pilot rang the bell to "back water." The boat struck the piles at the entrance to the slip with great force. The concussion was so great that in the recoil an Adams express wagon on the boat near the chains went over into the slip. Patrick McNulty, a deck hand, who attempted to stop it, went along. He was drowned. So were the horses. The wagon and baggage were recovered. A third horse, belonging to the Pennsylvania railroad company, went over, too, and was drowned. John Madden received serious injuries while trying to prevent the horses from going overboard.

A Rehling, a Pittsburg brakeman, was struck by the overhead canal bridge at Delphos and knocked from the train. His head is badly bruised up, but he will recover and is now under Surgeon Steman's care in this city.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Drunken Man Shoots His Wife and Himself.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—A terrible murder and suicide took place about half past 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in a little one story frame cottage at No. 1,075 Van Horn street. Frank Zeman, a Hungarian, shot his wife through the heart and then took his own life. James Schneider, who was passing the place at the time heard the fatal shot, and, rushing to the house saw the woman fall heavily to the floor. The murderer then ran out into the yard and sent the contents of the second chamber of the revolver through his own head.

Several of the children came out of the house, and, seeing their father and mother lying dead upon the ground, commenced to cry in a piteous manner. The smallest child tried to place her arms about the dead man's neck, and when taken away her clothing was stained with blood. The police were notified and the bodies taken into the house, where they were cared for by the kind-hearted neighbors. The terrible tragedy was undoubtedly caused by liquor, because the murderer had always been kind to his family before he commenced to drink to excess. Since the labor troubles in the lumber district he had worked very little, and spent all his money for liquor. His former employers state that they had to discharge him because he used to go to work in a drunken condition and could not be depended upon. Otherwise, when he was sober they considered him to be a good workman. The six little children who were so suddenly thrown on the world were taken to the houses of neighbors, where they will be taken care of.

Funeral of Fred Bohling.

The late Fred Bohling was buried yesterday afternoon from the home of his father. The Knights of Labor and Moulder's union attended in a body and the services were at Zion's Lutheran church. This tribute speaks for him:

At a joint meeting of the Knights of Labor of Fort Wayne, Indiana, the following resolutions of respect to our deceased brother, Frederick Bohling, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Knights of Labor assemblies of Fort Wayne express their sincere sorrow at the death of our late worthy brother. He was always known to us as a worthy citizen, a true Knight, upright and exemplary in all the relations of life.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved parents and relatives of our deceased brother Frederick Bohling, our our heartfelt sympathy in their affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the parents of our deceased brother and to the city papers.

By order of the Fort Wayne Knights of Labor.

E. L. McCANLY, JAS. MITCHELL, T. J. SUGRUE, Com.

Hon. Daniel McDonald is at Indianapolis attending the meeting of the state central committee. He is chairman of the Thirtieth congressional district committee and authorizes the statement that the time of the convention has been changed from September 1 to September 8, and that it will meet at Warsaw.

NOT TAXABLE.

The Godfrey Estate is Not to Be Gobbled.

The government in 1818 gave Jean Baptiste Richardville, chief of the Miami Indians, certain lands just southwest and near Fort Wayne. The lands passed to descendants, eventually falling to Mary Strack. Since 1850 assessments have been made, but a plea is set up under the grant the land was not taxable.

Chief Richardville devised the land to his daughter LaBlonde, who, before her death in 1847, devised it to her son Ke-la-ke-wa-ah and her daughter Mong-go-se-quah.

Subsequently, Ke-la-ke-wa-ah gave his portion to his sister, and after partition she gave to her daughter Land-nagis-sau-quah, or Katharine Godfrey, 150 acres, and Mary Strack, eighty-two acres.

Both died and the ownership of the land became vested in a daughter of Sa-ca-cha-quah, whose name was also Mary Strack. The lands have been in possession of her and her ancestors since 1812 and are now of considerable value.

In 1879 Mr. Charles H. Aldrich, of Fort Wayne, bought the land at tax sale, and instituted suit to get possession. Prior to 1850, no taxes were imposed, but since then assessments have been made and Charles H. Aldrich, of Fort Wayne, purchased the property at a delinquent sale, receiving a tax deed thereon on the ground that the heirs forfeited their claim by voting.

A case has been pending in the federal court at Indianapolis to quiet the title. Saturday Judge Woods, Justice Harlan concurring, decided the case in favor of Mary Strack, upholding the treaty of 1818. The land is very valuable, amounting to two hundred acres.

Judge Woods overruled the defendants demurrer to complaint, holding that the grant to Richardville should descend to his children and grandchildren and that the fact that they had voted illegally did not impair their claim.

Accident at the Sham Battle. D. H. Harrison, of battery C, from Lafayette, had his right hand shot off in a frightful manner during the battle. The limb was horribly mangled. Another man had his thumb broken and a few other minor mishaps are noted.

CHOICE BITS.

The News That is Culled for the "Sentinel" Readers.

Messrs. Parnell and other distinguished Irishmen sent to Patrick Egan a fine silver tea set as a testimonial of their appreciation of his services to the Irish National Land League. The set was presented at Chicago.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Times telegraphs the rumor that the president, before his departure from Washington last Saturday, appointed General Rogers, of Buffalo, N. Y., to succeed S. P. Rounds as public printer September 5th.

The first application for a copy of the Democratic Campaign book for 1886 was made by a Dakota democrat, who wanted some fresh ammunition to fire at the republicans in that vicinity. The book will be issued in a short time.

The Huntington County republicans nominated this ticket Saturday: Representative, Col. C. T. Bryant; clerk, John Glenn; auditor, J. H. Hearston; treasurer, W. K. Windle; recorder, M. W. Little; surveyor, C. B. Hart; commissioner Third district, Abraham Shidler; coronator, Dr. Charles W. Wright.

The Wabash democratic county convention was held in that city Saturday, and nominated the following ticket: Representative, Francis M. Britton; clerk, A. M. Filler; treasurer, Jacob Strong; auditor, Andrew J. Staber; recorder, William H. Jackson; surveyor, Frank Massman. The convention throughout was devoid of interest and the attendance was slender. The delegates to the congressional convention were instructed for M. H. Kidd.

R. M. Lockhart, president of the big fair circuit, is in the city.

The eleventh congressional convention takes place to-morrow at Bluffton.

August Swenson, Charles Johnson and Peter Erickson were drowned in Lake Pepin, Minn., during the storm Saturday night. ## OUSTED!

Prince Alexander Suddenly Dethroned.

His Enemies Surround Him and Convey Him From His Nation at the Czar's Bidding.

Russia Asked to Protect Bulgaria and War in the East is Certain.

REVOLUTION IN BULGARIA.

The Troops and Populace Compel the Abdication of Prince Alexander.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, dated Saturday, says: "The populace and the troops quartered in the capital surrounding the palace early this morning. Prince Alexander abdicated and was escorted over the frontier. There was no disorder. The populace then assembled and adopted a resolution praying the Czar to re-extend his sympathy to the Bulgarian people. The assembly proceeded to the palace of the Russian agent and submitted to him the resolution, all kneeling. The agent assured them of the Czar's friendship. The following provisional government has been formed:

"Prime Minister, Monsignor Clement, metropolitan of Tirnova; Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Stajano; Minister of the Interior, M. Sankoff; Minister of Finance, M. Hurmoff; Minister of War, M. Nekitoroff; Minister of Justice, M. Radoslawoff; Minister of Education, M. Velichoff."

The people are tranquil. The city is illuminated to-night, and is gayly decorated with flags. Premier Clement has issued a proclamation announcing the formal abdication of Prince Alexander, who renounces the throne forever, being convinced that his reign would be fatal to Bulgaria. The Premier states that the new cabinet will serve until the meeting of the National assembly, expresses the hope that all parties will co-operate to maintain the law, and assures the people that the Czar will not leave the country without his powerful protection.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The Daily News this morning says: "It is obvious that Prince Alexander was deprived of his throne by direct orders of the czar. The official version of the revolution is so flagrantly and transparently dishonest it will not deceive a child. The effect may be extremely serious. Russia's action is absolutely unwarrantable and without Alexander was nominally a vassal of the sultan, and as it can be shown, he was deposed without the sultan's consent, a grave international difficulty will be at once raised."

The deposition of Prince Alexander, of Bulgaria, has astounded the politicians and financiers of England.

Dispatches from Tientsin state that the Chinese government has decided to dispatch troops to the neighborhood of Port Lazereff as a precautionary measure against the reported design of Russia to seize that place.

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—M. De Giers, the Russian foreign minister, who is sojourning at Franzensbad, will, it is stated, immediately visit Prince Bismarck. Kalnosky, the Austrian minister for foreign affairs, says the opinion is general here that Germany and Austria, by mutual agreement, sacrificed Prince Alexander, of Bulgaria, in order to preserve the alliance with Russia at the expense of England.

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—The Post, (Prince Bismarck's organ) publishes an article on the Bulgarian crisis, which is characterized by amiability of expressions toward Russia and unfriendliness to England.

A SURPRISE TO ALEXANDER.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Times, contains the following: "Prince Alexander was deposed by conspiracy. All news from Bulgaria comes at present through official couriers and no private persons allowed to either leave or enter Bulgaria. Telegraph lines have been stopped from operating. The story of the deposition is told as follows: Karacloff, the prime minister, entered the palace at Sofia and explained to Prince Alexander that the public opinion of Bulgaria was dissatisfied with his policy, and demanded his deposition. Prince Alexander said: 'I see no friends, I cannot resist.' Prince Alexander was taken completely by surprise, he was astonished at the sudden bursting of the plot on him."

SOVIA, Aug. 23.—The government's proclamation announcing the deposition of Prince Alexander and the reasons therefor, declares that he rendered great services on the field of battle, but politically he had too little regard for Bulgaria's position as a slave state and maintenance of relations with Russia. His deposition on this account was a necessity.

PARIS, Aug. 23.—The transport Orne, which sailed from Toulon on Saturday for Martinique, loaded with convicts, returned yesterday and reported that the convicts had revolted and tried to gain possession of the ship. Two cannons, loaded with grape, had been fired at the mutineers and many had been killed.

HIGHLANDS, Aug. 23.—The yachts started at 12:21 on a twenty mile race. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—The steamer City of Sidney arrived late Saturday with Hong Kong dates to July 26 and Yokohama dates to Aug. 3. Cholera is raging in Corea. Twenty thousand deaths are reported in the province of Keishodo alone. The natives call it a divine visitation, and refuse to give medical attention to the patients.

Gladstone Talks.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Gladstone in the course of an address at Chislehurst on Saturday said: "The enthusiasm of the British friends of the home rule idea, is an incentive to me to never be beaten in it, but to continue the struggle for the happiness of Ireland. Let men consult any book or nation in the world and they will not find one which does not say that the relations between England and Ireland, under the union, have been miserable for Ireland and dishonorable to England. If the country desires to redeem her honor and enable her parliament to attend to its pressing business of imperial legislation, the Irish question must be settled."

The Condemned Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—The condemned anarchists spent their entire time yesterday in the seclusion and quiet of their cells. Callers are excluded on Sunday by the rules of the jail. Clergymen are the only exceptions to the rule, and the customary Sunday visit was paid the other prisoners by a minister of the gospel. The anarchists were omitted, by their own orders. They wanted no religious consolation, they said.

Severe Storm at Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 23.—The severe wind and rain storm of the season burst upon this city yesterday afternoon. Rain fell in torrents and flooded the streets, making them impassable. Fruit and shade trees and fencing were blown down.

The roof was blown off the Linwood school house. A number of barns and dwellings were struck by lightning, but no loss of life is reported.

Fire Record.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., 23.—The Pan-handle freight depot at this place was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss between $9,000 and $12,000. All the waybills, books, and records were destroyed. The amount of insurance can not now be ascertained.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The president has appointed Felix A. Reeve, of Tennessee, to be assistant solicitor of the treasury, vice Joseph Robinson, resigned. Reeve has been a clerk in the solicitor's office for many years.

Thirty-eight Lives Lost and Many More Persons are Missing.

THE TEXAS STORM.

The Whole Gulf Coast Inundated and Many Lives Lost.

INDIANOLA, Texas, Aug. 23.—Never before was the lower Texas coast visited by so terrible and destructive a storm. It extended for 200 miles inland, destroying thousands of houses and involving a pecuniary loss of many millions. The entire crop of the present year is practically gone and a vast deal of suffering must ensue, especially among the negroes, most of whom are without means of any kind. It is feared many more people were drowned. The lower end of the peninsula was completely washed seaward. Many are missing and nothing definite can be learned until the angry waters recede. The storm came in the shape of a hurricane. The waters of the gulf rose, and in three hours, the whole peninsula, on which Indianola is situated, was under ten feet of water. The total loss as now known to Texas from the gulf storm is: Human lives lost, thirty-eight. Loss to crops, $1,000,000. Loss to city and town property, $3,400,000. The loss to shipping and harbor improvements, $900,000.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE.

Alvey A. Adee, Who Has Charge of Our Difficultly With Mexico.

The new assistant secretary of state began his diplomatic career on Spanish soil, in 1870, and remained for seven years as secretary of the American legation at Madrid. Our assuming his present position, his first duty happens to be the delicate one of settling with the Spaniards, of Mexico, the long series of outrages which have been perpetrated on both sides of the Rio Grande. It is not alone his Madrid experience that qualifies him so eminently for this task. For the last nine years he has held the positions subordinate to his present one, to which he advanced by regular promotion. He is a close student of his duties, and is therefore a well trained diplomat. He is a native of New York state, and but 44 years of age. He was secretary Fish who appointed him secretary of legation at Madrid in 1870. In 1877 he was transferred to the state department at Washington. The following year he was promoted chief of the diplomatic bureau, and a month later he was appointed third assistant secretary of state, where he remained until his recent promotion by the president. In politics he is a Republican.

THE X. M. C. A. OF DETROIT

The Magnificent and Complete Structure Proposed.

The Young Men's Christian association of Detroit, Mich., after an existence of twenty years, expects shortly to possess a building large enough to meet the requirements of its institution. This association has met many reverses, but now seems to be in a flourishing condition, with a membership of over 1,000, who are entitled, for the small fee of $6 per annum, to a fine gymnasium in charge of a competent professor, evening educational classes, talks on important subjects by leading professional and business men, lectures and concerts.

men. It will contain a gymnasium, bowling alley, natatorium, sponge, shower and needle baths and running track. On the second floor is an auditorium capable of seating 900 people, secretary's office, reading room, small audience room and reception hall. Above this are the library, parlors, directors' room, boys' room and dining room. Still higher up is the janitor's department and class rooms.

The Late Ex-Governor of Kentucky.

The late Governor Stevenson was a typical southerner, brave, talented, hospitable, and the soul of honor. He was born in Richmond, Va., in 1812. His father, Andrew Stevenson, was for many years the speaker of the Federal congress, and a minister to the court of St. James.

He first settled in Memphis, Tenn., but, not succeeding there, he went to Covington, Ky., in 1840 to practice law. In 1845 he was elected a member of the state legislature, where he served during that year, and also in 1846 and 1847, and in 1849 served as a

GOVERNOR STEVENSON, member of the convention to amend the constitution of the state.

In 1844, 1848, 1852 and 1856 he was elected delegate to national Democratic convention, and was permanent chairman of the Cincinnati convention of 1860, which nominated Gen. Hancock to the presidency. From 1857 to 1861 he was a member of congress; was made lieutenant governor of the state in 1867, and in 1868 governor. In this last office he rendered the state signal service. In 1870 he was elected a member of the United States senate, where he served with distinction.

Governor Stevenson was a man of rare literary and legal attainments. He had practised law in Covington for over forty-five years, and had served as advisory counsel for many of the largest companies of Kentucky.

At the time of his death he was president of the National Bar association, and had recently delivered the annual address before that body at Saratoga. Our engraving is from a photograph by Marceau, Cincinnati, O.

The democratic state central commit-declaring no legal nomination for congress in the Indianapolis district. It is hoped the people will see that no such quarrel arises there again.

be backward in giving him unqualified support.

THE CROOKS.

They Get in Their Work for a Few Hundred Dollars—The
Robinson House Touched.

It must be acknowledged that the police regulations of Fort Wayne have
been admirably tested in the past few days. No one can justly complain of the conduct of the "cops" as the city has
been pretty free from crime day and night. Of course no system can be perfect and rascals are as smart if not smarter than peblers.

Tom Hazlett sauntered on to Barr
street, near Columbia street Saturday morning quite early. He was "held up" on the sidewalk and robbed of his watch.
He was under the "influence" of bad
liquor and fell an easy victim. While
Mr. H. was relating his experience W.
R. Finney, a Baltimore and Ohio man, filed up to the marshal. He undertook to see the city with some friends and in a secluded spot they relieved him of a gold watch and chain and $40, every cent he had. Finney acknowledged that he had encountered the good old stuff that drowns sorrow, and probably tarried with it too long. He located the robbery on Pearl street and the police
took notes.

The heaviest robbery of the week was at the Robinson house. A sneak thief got into the hotel and managed to line his
wallet with between $300 and $400 and a watch or two. The rogue got into the sleeping apartments by means of skele-
ton keys, and the first slumberer he encountered was a traveling salesman,
from whom he took a watch and chain
and almost $150. He went into two other rooms and in all got away with about $400 cash. The names are not given and there was an effort to hush
the matter up.

James Artis, a colored man, was arrested yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Wilkinson for
selling liquor on the encampment
grounds without a government license.
Complaint was made to Inspector
Ohnloh, and after a preliminary hearing Artis was bound over in the sum of $500 to await a further investigation,
Friday next. Artis lives on a farm north of town but is now in jail. The officers are after other offenders.

James Burns was arraigned at police
court this morning on a charge of stealing $4 from Mrs. Lepper. He is a crook and the mayor held him for a further hearing.

GREAT JAM.

Thousands Attracted to Camp
Grant and the Disappointments Are as Numerous
As the Visitors, Who
Make a Kick.

It is no mistake to say that there was
a greater crowd here yesterday and today than Fort Wayne has for some time past boasted of. At least a dozen excursion trains were run into the city in the morning, and every coach was jammed full of people. Many came from the country about us in vehicles,
and the streets were thronged all day.
The strangers would ask: "Where is Sam Jones preaching?" "In West Virginia," a smart chap would respond,
and then the unsophisticated enquirers
would consume all the ozone in reach of
their lungs.

"I came all the way from Jackson to see Bob Ingersoll," said an old man with
a squeaky voice and a penchant for profanity when informed that Pope Bob was en route to Europe. Thus ran the day, and to add to the disappointments of the
multitude a heavy rain began falling at 10 o'clock and continued dripping and
threatening until evening.

Hundreds visited camp Grant and paid
twenty-five cents a head and the same
for each vehicle to look into the mysteries of a military encampment. Some refused to yield the sum at the gate and returned to the city to be hastily followed by those who were driven from
the grounds by the rain. The capacity of the reunion folks to feed the veterans
was over-taxed and many had to seek
their meals in the city, where there was
an equal scarcity of food. The restaurants and hotels were completely eaten
out at noon yesterday, and then the saloons reaped a harvest. The absence of Messrs. Ingersoll and Jones had a depressing effect and the visitors under-
took to drown their troubles in beer and other beverages. But few people remained at Camp Grant compared to the
throng in the city, and every available
spot was nailed by men, women and
children, who not only found it difficult to get a meal, but quite as hard to find a bed. The vacant buildings about town Saturday and last night were occupied
by people who were mighty thankful to get shelter on a hard plank floor. It is apparent that Fort Wayne cannot entertain such a monstrous crowd, which this
morning was increased by fully a dozen
additional excursion trains.

A KICK IN CAMP.

There was trouble in camp from the
moment the parade formed Saturday.
The old veterans were up in arms because the boys were given the first and prominent place in the procession. The
old soldiers are jealous of their laurels
and seemed to think they earned the place of honor in all pageants. Sion S.
Bass post, of this city, and many posts
from abroad, were not in line at all and the Kosciusko post, commanded by Capt. Runyan, packed up yesterday at noon and headed by their band returned home. Other posts followed them and this morning similar scenes were enacted.
Their grievances were varied. Some complained that they came here understanding that the payment of the fifty cent register fee was optional. The Warsaw folks believed it that way and Captain Runyan had to pay for twenty-
five or thirty of his command. Others
said they paid the registration fee and
then could not get enough to eat, while
still others were fighting mad at and
flatly contradicted this special dispatch
which was sent to all the metropolitan papers.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 20.—Quite
an exciting episode occurred at Camp Grant this afternoon, caused by the sheriff of Wells county appearing on the ground with warrants for the arrest of Scott Swann, president; Thomas Sullivan, secretary, and James Harper, quartermaster of the State Veterans' Association. The warrants cite them to appear at Bluffton to answer to a charge of criminal libel on an indictment sworn out by Col. J. W. Young, adjutant general of the same association.

The soldiers in the camp, headed by
Col. C. A. Zollinger, state pension agent,
surrounded the sheriff, and prevented
his serving the warrants. The sheriff
returned to Bluffton for re-enforcements,
and is determined to make the arrests
to-morrow.

The soldiers claim they will prevent
him. The conflict between the civil and military authorities is looked forward to
with great interest. It is understood Young has sworn out warrants in Black-
ford county on the same charge, and
officers from that county are expected.
It looks as though to-morrow will eclipse
Monday's sham battle by one more real.

The soldiers deny emphatically any
connection with the controversy of the reunion people with Dr. Young. They saw no sheriff on the grounds, knew of
no attempt to arrest Messrs. Sullivan, Swann and Harper, neither would they have interfered with one. They object
to such reports as that published above
going to their homes and denounce it roundly.

All these complaints were discussed
on the street, and added to the absence of Jones, Small and Ingersoll, created a huge kick that it will take Fort Wayne a good many years to redeem
and our people may as well acquaint
themselves with the cold truth.

THE SHAM BATTLE.

The scenes of revolution and lack of scarcity of food and lack of accommo-

tions, which Capt. Scott Swann quieted yesterday, were renewed this morning
with more anger than ever. The old
veterans and young men read the "riot
act," as they styled it, to the encamp-
the camp, and all day every outgoing
train was crowded with people sore and
disgusted with their treatment here.

Notwithstanding all this the sham battle advertised opened about 3:00 this afternoon in the presence of possibly 20,000 people. The engagement was planned
after the battle of Fort Donaldson, and
was to represent it as closely as the facilities permitted.

After much maneuvering the forces
faced each other. Captain J. H. Rohan,
of this city, was in command of the union forces, while Captain O'Leary, of Michigan, led the rebel side. There was a plan of battle arranged and
signals for the fight. The commanders are gallant Irish soldiers and prediction were made that Captain Rohan would
bear the military laurels from the field.

The members of Governor Gray's staff were added to the rival commanders and they in turn summoned corporals to
their side. Adjutant General Koontz
was commander of camp and Captain Frank Rawles was officer of the day, his men having combined with the Jackson Cadeets. General Rosecrans reviewed the conflict from a carriage and much interest was manifested by the assembled multitude, which occupied the
grand stand, stood in carriages and
formed a circle about the battle ground.

STRAY SHOTS.

All the county offices were closed this
afternoon.

The ground was wet and sloppy in
many places.

The Pittsburgh road brought in the
largest crowd.

The fair name of our city received a sad blow yesterday.

The McClung post and one of the Jacks on companies returned home this morning.

The Ohio troops charged a party of
noisy drummers from their quarters Saturday night.

It will take years for Fort Wayne to
undo the damage that was done our city
by yesterday's work.

The Wabash company closed their
shops at noon to give the men an opportunity to attend the sham battle.

General Phil Sheridan has a penchant
for old coins. He has a very fine collection of them, which he prizes highly.

Neither Sam Jones, Sam Small or Bob
Ingersoll made their appearance yesterday. Dr. Young has his faults, and many of them, but he told the truth
about these gentlemen.

Col. C. A. Zollinger yesterday placed
Adjutant General Koontz in command
of camp Grant and left for Indianapolis.
He was called there on important official business as the pension payments are being made.

Thousands of people returned home
yesterday disappointed and disgusted.
They thought surely they would see Sam
Jones, as advertised. Many remarked
at the different depots before they took
the train, that they were done with Fort Wayne forever.

General Sheridan recently made his annual visit to his aged mother at Somerset, Ohio, the General's birthplace.
Mrs. Sheridan is 87 years old and is still active mentally and physically. The village was profusely decorated in honor of
the distinguished hero of Winchester.

Five men who gambled at the reunion
grounds were fined by Justice France
to-day.

Someway the crowd was larger than last year. As far as the eye could see the ground was covered with people.

The crowd to-day helped them out
and closed the reunion with a big financial success. The projectors will clear

CUTTING.

An American Who has Visited Him Talks on His Case.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Aug. 23.—Mr. Mansfield, long a resident in this city, who carries on heavy mining operations in old Mexico, returned last evening from the Municipal mine in Senora, which he left on Tuesday. On Wednesday he visited Cutting in his cell at Paso del Norte.

"And how is he treated?" inquired a press correspondent.

"Oh, splendidly," was the answer. "The fact is," added Mr. Mansfield, "Cutting is treated more as a guest than a prisoner. He is held as a sort of prisoner of state. He is lightly guarded, has the best at the prison, and I think the Mexican authorities would be glad if he would walk away—and the best of fare."

"The war feeling is decidedly on the increase on both sides. The Mexicans are wild for war, and if you could hear them talk, and put any confidence in their statements, you would really think the United States in danger. They say they are much better prepared for war than in '48; that they have larger armies, better disciplined troops, and able generals. There is a reason for their war-like spirit. It arises not so much from active hostility to our government and to our people, as from their own turbulent condition and the internal dissensions that are distracting their people and paralyzing their general government. The more intelligent Mexicans, who under other conditions would be opposed to war, rather favor it now, as they think it will quiet their own factions and make their own people united and harmonious."

"Well, the war feeling is in the ascendant. I hardly know why, except from this fact: American citizens are treated shamefully by the Mexican states and the Mexican general government. Cutting is only the representative of a class. His wrongs are small in comparison to others, and as a consequence there is bad blood and a red-hot feeling against Mexico on this side."

"Do the people down there think there will be war?"

"I think the opinion is quite general. I may say it is the prevalent opinion that the strained relations now existing, caused by the long series of wrongs against our citizens cannot be cured by diplomacy, and that war will result. This is the opinion of intelligent men on both sides, and the beligerent class, much the stronger, want a war."

A RIVER ACCIDENT.

One Man Killed and Another Injured.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—When the ferry boat New Brunswick, on the Pennsylvania railroad ferry, came into the Delaware street slip at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, the engines refused to work at the moment the pilot rang the bell to "back water." The boat struck the piles at the entrance to the slip with great force. The concussion was so great that in the recoil an Adams express wagon on the boat near the chains went over into the slip. Patrick McNulty, a deck hand, who attempted to stop it, went along. He was drowned. So were the horses. The wagon and baggage were recovered. A third horse, belonging to the Pennsylvania railroad company, went over, too, and was drowned. John Madden received serious injuries while trying to prevent the horses from going overboard.

A Rehling, a Pittsburgh brakeman, was struck by the overhead canal bridge at Delphos and knocked from the train. His head is badly bruised up, but he will recover and is now under Surgeon Staman's care in this city.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Drunken Man Shoots His Wife and Himself.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—A terrible murder and suicide took place about half past 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in a little one-story frame cottage at No. 1,075 Van Horn street. Frank Zeman, a Hungarian, shot his wife through the heart and then took his own life. James Schneider, who was passing the place at the time heard the fatal shot, and, rushing to the house saw the woman fall heavily to the floor. The murderer then ran out into the yard and sent the contents of the second chamber of the revolver through his own head.

Several of the children came out of the house, and, seeing their father and mother lying dead upon the ground, commenced to cry in a piteous manner. The smallest child tried to place her arms about the dead man's neck, and when taken away her clothing was stained with blood. The police were notified and the bodies taken into the house, where they were cared for by the kind-hearted neighbors. The terrible tragedy was undoubtedly caused by liquor, because the murderer had always been kind to his family before he commenced to drink to excess. Since the labor troubles in the lumber district he had worked very little, and spent all his money for liquor. His former employers state that they had to discharge him because he used to go to work in a drunken condition and could not be depended upon. Otherwise, when he was sober they considered him to be a good workman. The six little children who were so suddenly thrown on the world were taken to the houses of neighbors, where they will be taken care of.

FUNERAL OF FRED BOHLING.

The late Fred Bohling was buried yesterday afternoon from the home of his father. The Knights of Labor and Moulder's union attended in a body and the services were at Zion's Lutheran church. This tribute speaks for him: At a joint meeting of the Knights of Labor of Fort Wayne, Indiana, the following resolutions of respect to our deceased brother, Frederick Bohling, were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the Knights of Labor assemblies of Fort Wayne express their sincere sorrow at the death of our late worthy brother. He was always known to us as a worthy citizen, a true Knight, upright and exemplary in all the relations of life.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved parents and relatives of our deceased brother Frederick Bohling, our heartfelt sympathy in their affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the parents of our deceased brother and to the city papers.

By order of the Fort Wayne Knights of Labor.

NOT TAXABLE.

The Godfrey Estate is Not to Be Gobbled.

The government in 1818 gave Jean Baptiste Richardville, chief of the Miami Indians, certain lands just southwest and near Fort Wayne. The lands passed to descendants, eventually falling to Mary Strack. Since 1850 assessments have been made, but a plea is set up under the grant the land was not taxable.

Chief Richardville devised the land to his daughter LaBlonde, who, before her death in 1847, devised it to her son Ke-la-ke-wa-ke-sh and her daughter Mongo-se-quah.

Subsequently, Ke-la-ke-wa-ke-sh gave his portion to his sister, and after partition she gave to her daughter Lau-danagla-sau-qua, or Katharine Godfrey, 150 acres, and Mary Strack, eighty-two acres.

Both died and the ownership of the land became vested in a daughter of Sa-oa-cha-qua, whose name was also Mary Strack. The lands have been in possession of her and her ancestors since 1812 and are now of considerable value.

In 1879 Mr. Charles H. Aldrich, of Fort Wayne, bought the land at tax sale, and instituted suit to get possession.

Prior to 1850, no taxes were imposed, but since then assessments have been made and Charles H. Aldrich, of Fort Wayne, purchased the property at a delinquent sale, receiving a tax deed thereon on the ground that the heirs forfeited their claim by voting.

A case has been pending in the federal court at Indianapolis to quiet the title. Saturday Judge Woods, Justice Harlan concurring, decided the case in favor of Mary Strack, upholding the treaty of 1818. The land is very valuable, amounting to two hundred acres.

Judge Woods overruled the defendants demurrer to complaint, holding that the grant to Richardville should descend to his children and grandchildren and that the fact that they had voted illegally did not impair their claim.

The Wabash democratic county convention was held in that city Saturday, and nominated the following ticket: Representative, Francis M. Britton; clerk, A. M. Filler; treasurer, Jacob Strong; auditor, Andrew J. Slaber; recorder, William H. Jackson; surveyor, Frank Massman. The convention throughout was devoid of interest and the attendance was slender. The delegates to the congressional convention were instructed for M. H. Kidd.

REVOLUTION IN BULGARIA.

The Troops and Populace Compete the Abdication of Prince Alexander.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, dated Saturday, says: "The populace and the troops quartered in the capital surrounding the palace early this morning. Prince Alexander abdicated and was escorted over the frontier. There was no disorder. The populace then assembled and adopted a resolution praying the Czar to re-extend his sympathy to the Bulgarian people. The assembly proceeded to the palace of the Russian agent and submitted to him the resolution, all kneeling. The agent assured them of the Czar's friendship. The following provisional government has been formed:

"Prime Minister, Monsignor Clement, metropolitan of Timova; Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Blajunoff; Minister of the Interior, M. Sankoff; Minister of Finance, M. Hurmoff; Minister of War, M. Nekiforoff; Minister of Justice, M. Radolakoff; Minister of Education, M. Velichoff."

The people are tranquil. The city is illuminated to-night, and is gayly decorated with flags. Premier Clement has issued a proclamation announcing the formal abdication of Prince Alexander, who renounces the throne forever, being convinced that his reign would be fatal to Bulgaria. The Premier states that the new cabinet will serve until the meeting of the National assembly; expresses the hope that all parties will co-operate to maintain the law, and assures the people that the Czar will not leave the country without his powerful protection.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The Daily News this morning says: "It is obvious that Prince Alexander was deprived of his throne by direct orders of the czar. The official version of the revolution is so flagrantly and transparently dishonest it will not deceive a child. The effect may be extremely serious. Russia's action is absolutely unwarrantable and without Alexander was nominally a vassal of the sultan, and, as it can be shown, he was deposed without the sultan's consent, a grave international difficulty will be at once raised."

The deposition of Prince Alexander, of Bulgaria, has astonished the politicians and financiers of England.

Dispatches from Peking state that the Chinese government has decided to dislodge troops to the neighborhood of Port Luzerell as a precautionary measure against the reported design of Russia to seize that place.

Berlin, Aug. 23.—M. De Giers, the Russian foreign minister, who is sojourning at Franzensbad, will, it is stated, immediately visit Prince Bismarck. Kulkosky, the Austrian minister for foreign affairs, says the opinion is general here that Germany and Austria, by mutual agreement, sacrificed Prince Alexander, of Bulgaria, in order to preserve the alliance with Russia at the expense of England.

A SURPRISE TO ALEXANDER.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Times, contains the following: "Prince Alexander was deposed by conspiracy. All news from Bulgaria comes at present through official couriers and no private persons allowed to either leave or enter Bulgaria. Telegraph lines have been stopped from operating. The story of the deposition is told as follows: Karaceloff, the prime minister, entered the palace at Sofia and explained to Prince Alexander that the public opinion of Bulgaria was dissatisfied with his policy, and demanded his deposition. Prince Alexander said: 'I see no friends, I cannot resist.' Prince Alexander was

Sofia, Aug. 23.—The government's proclamation announcing the deposition of Prince Alexander and the reasons therefor, declares that he rendered great services on the field of battle, but politically he had too little regard for Bulgaria's position as a slave state and maintenance of relations with Russia. His deposition on this account was a necessity.

Paris, Aug. 23.—The transport Orne, which sailed from Toulon on Saturday for Martinique, loaded with convicts, returned yesterday and reported that the convicts had revolted and tried to gain possession of the ship. Two cannons, loaded with grape, had been fired at the mutineers and many had been killed.

HIGHLANDS, Aug. 23.—The yachts started at 12:21 on a twenty mile race.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—The steamer City of Sidney arrived late Saturday with Hong Kong dates to July 26 and Yokohama dates to Aug. 3. Cholera is raging in Corea. Twenty thousand deaths are reported in the province of Kiohodo alone. The natives call it a divine visitation, and refuse to give medical attention to the patients.

Gladstone Talks.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Gladstone in the course of an address at Chislehurst on Saturday said: "The enthusiasm of the British friends of the home rule idea, is an incentive to me to never be beaten in it, but to continue the struggle for the happiness of Ireland. Let men consult any book or nation in the world and they will not find one which does not say that the relations between England and Ireland, under the union, have been miserable for Ireland and dishonorable to England. If the country desires to redeem her honor and enable her parliament to attend to its pressing business of imperial legislation, the Irish question must be settled."

The Condemned Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—The condemned anarchists spent their entire time yesterday in the seclusion and quiet of their cells. Callers are excluded on Sunday by the rules of the jail. Clergymen are the only exceptions to the rule, and the customary Sunday visit was paid the other prisoners by a minister of the gospel. The anarchists were omitted, by their own orders. They wanted no religious consolation, they said.

Severe Storm at Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 23.—The severe wind and rain storm of the season burst upon this city yesterday afternoon. Rain fell in torrents and flooded the streets, making them impassable.

Fruit and shade trees and fencing were blown down.

The roof was blown off the Linwood school house. A number of barns and dwellings were struck by lightning, but no loss of life is reported.

Fire Record.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., 23.—The Pan-handle freight depot at this place was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss between $9,000 and $12,000. All the waybills, books, and records were destroyed. The amount of insurance can not now be ascertained.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The president has appointed Felix A. Reeve, of Tennessee, to be assistant solicitor of the treasury, vice Joseph Robinson, resigned. Reeve has been a clerk in the solicitor's office for many years.

THE TEXAS STORM.

The Whole Gulf Coast Inunda-

INDIANOLA, Texas, Aug. 23.—Never before was the lower Texas coast visited by so terrible and destructive a storm. It extended for 200 miles inland, destroying thousands of houses and involving a pecuniary loss of many millions. The entire crop of the present year is practically gone and a vast deal of suffering must ensue, especially among the negroes, most of whom are without means of any kind. It is feared many more people were drowned. The lower end of the peninsula was completely washed seaward. Many are missing and nothing definite can be learned until the angry waters recede. The storm came in the shape of a hurricane. The waters of the gulf rose, and in three hours, the whole peninsula, on which Indianola is situated, was under ten feet of water. The total loss as now known to Texas from the gulf storm is:

Human lives lost, thirty-eight.
Loss to crops, $1,000,000.
Loss to city and town property, $3,400,000.
The loss to shipping and harbor improvements, $300,000.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE.

Alvey A. Adee, Who Has Charge of Our Diminution With Mexico.

The new assistant secretary of state began his diplomatic career on Spanish soil, in 1879, and remained for seven years the secretary of the American legation at Madrid. On assuming his present position, his first duty happens to be the delicate one of settling with the Spaniards of Mexico the long series of outrages which have been perpetrated on both sides of the Rio Grande. It is not alone his Madrid experience that qualifies him so eminently for this task. For the last nine years he has held the position subordinate to his present one, to which he advanced by regular promotion. He is a close student of his duties, and is therefore a well trained diplomat. He is a native of New York state, and but 41 years of age. It was secretary Fish who appointed him secretary of legation at Madrid in 1879. In 1877 he was transferred to the state department at Washington. The following year he was promoted chief of the diplomatic bureau, and a month later he was appointed third assistant secretary of state, where he remained until his recent promotion by the president. In politics he is a Republican.

THE Y. M. C. A. OF DETROIT.

The magnificent and complete structure proposed.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Detroit, Mich., after an existence of twenty years, expects shortly to possess a building large enough to meet the requirements of its institution. This association has met many reverses, but now seems to be in a flourishing condition, with a membership of over 1,000, who are entitled, for the small fee of $3 per annum, to a fine gymnasium in charge of a competent professor, evening educational classes, talks on important subjects by leading professional and business men, lectures and concerts.

THE PROPOSED BUILDING.

It is intended to be one of the most complete of its kind in the world, and, when finished, will offer unrivaled privileges to young men.

men. It will contain a gymnasium, bowling alley, mutatorium, sponge shower and needle baths and running track. On the second floor is an auditorium capable of seating 900 people, secretary's office, reading room, small audience room and reception hall. Above this are the library, parlors, directors' room, boys' room and dining room. Still higher up is the janitor's department and class room.

The Late Ex-Governor of Kentucky.

The late Governor Stevenson was a typical southerner, brave, talented, hospitable, and the soul of honor. He was born in Richmond, Va., in 1812. His father, Andrew Stevenson, was for many years the speaker of the Federal congress, and a minister to the court of St. James. He first settled in Memphis, Tenn., but, not succeeding there, he went to Covington, Ky., in 1810 to practice law. In 1845 he was elected a member of the state legislature, where he served during that year, and also in 1846 and 1847, and in 1849 served as a member of the convention to amend the constitution of the state. In 1844, 1848, 1852 and 1856 he was sent as a delegate to national Democratic convention, and was permanent chairman of the Cincinnati convention of 1850, which nominated Gen. Hancock to the presidency. From 1857 to 1861 he was a member of congress; was made lieutenant governor of the state in 1867, and in 1868 governor. In this last office he rendered the state signal service. In 1870 he was elected a member of the United States senate, where he served with distinction. Governor Stevenson was a man of rare literary and legal attainments. He had practiced law in Covington for over forty-five years, and had served as advisory counsel for many of the largest companies of Kentucky. At the time of his death he was president of the National Bar association, and last summer delivered the annual address before that body at Saratoga. ### THE CROOKS.

Few Hundred Dollars—The
Robinson House Touched.

It must be acknowledged that the police regulations of Fort Wayne have
been admirably tested in the past few days. No one can justly complain of the conduct of the "cops" as the city has
been pretty free from crime day and
night. Of course no system can be perfect and rascals are as smart as if not smarter than peacemakers.

Tom Hazlett sauntered on to Barr
street, near Columbia street Saturday
morning quite early. He was "held up"
on the sidewalk and robbed of his watch.
He was under the "influence" of bad
liquor and fell an easy victim. While
Mr. H. was relating his experience W.
R. Finney, a Baltimore and Ohio man, fired up to the marshal. He undertook
to see the city with some friends and in
a secluded spot they relieved him of a gold watch and chain and $10, every-cent he had. Finney acknowledged that he had encountered the good old stuff
that drowns sorrow, and probably tar-
ried with it too long. He located the
robbery on Pearl street and the police
took notes.

The heaviest robbery of the week was at
the Robinson house. A sneak thief got
into the hotel and managed to line his
wallet with between $300 and $400 and a watch or two. The rogue got into the
sleeping apartments by means of skele-
ton keys, and the first slumberer he en-
countered was a traveling salesman,
from whom he took a watch and chain
and almost $150. He went into two
other rooms and in all got away with
about $400 cash. The names are not given and there was an effort to hush
the matter up.

James Artis, a colored man, was arrested yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Wilkinson for
selling liquor on the encampment
grounds without a government license.
Complaint was made to Inspector
Ohnisch, and after a preliminary hearing Artis was bound over in the sum of $500 to await a further investigation,
Friday next. Artis lives on a farm north
of town but is now in jail. The officers
are after other offenders.

James Burns was arraigned at police
court this morning on a charge of stealing $4 from Mrs. Lepper. He is a crook
and the mayor held him for a further
hearing.

GREAT JAM.

Thousands Attracted to Camp
Grant and the Disappoint-
ments Are as Numerous
As the Visitors, Who
Make a Kick.

It is no mistake to say that there was
a greater crowd here yesterday and to-
day than Fort Wayne has for some time past boasted of. At least a dozen excursion trains were run into the
city in the morning, and every coach was
jammed full of people. Many came
from the country about us in vehicles,
and the streets were thronged all day.
The strangers would ask: "Where is
Sam Jones preaching?" "In West Virginia," a smart chap would respond,
and then the unsophisticated enquirers
would consume all the ozone in reach of
their lungs.

"I came all the way from Jackson to
see Bob Ingersoll," said an old man with
a squeaky voice and a penchant for pro-
fanity when informed that Pope Bob was en route to Europe. Time ran the day,
and to add to the disappointments of the
multitude a heavy rain began falling at 10 o'clock and continued dripping and
threatening until evening.

Hundreds visited camp Grant and paid
twenty-five cents a head and the same
for each vehicle to look into the mysteries of a military encampment. Some refused to yield the sum at the gate and returned to the city to be lastly followed by those who were driven from
the grounds by the rain. The capacity of the reunion folks to feed the veterans
was over-taxed and many had to seek
their meals in the city, where there was
an equal scarcity of food. The restau-
rants and hotels were completely eaten
out at noon yesterday, and then the saloons resorted a harvest. The absence of Messrs. Ingersoll and Jones had a depressing effect and the visitors under-
took to drown their troubles in beer and
other beverages. But few people remained at Camp Grant compared to the
throng in the city, and every available
spot was nailed by men, women and
children, who not only found it difficult to get a meal, but quite as hard to find a
bed. The vacant buildings about town
Saturday and last night were occupied
by people who were mighty thankful to
get shelter on a hard plank floor. It is apparent that Fort Wayne cannot entertain such a monstrous crowd, which this
morning was increased by fully a dozen
additional excursion trains.

A KICK IN CAMP.

There was trouble in camp from the
moment the parade formed Saturday.
The old veterans wore up in arms because the boys were given the first and
prominent place in the procession. The
old soldiers are jealous of their laurels
and seemed to think they earned the
place of honor in all pageants. Sion S.
Baas post, of this city, and many posts
from abroad, were not in line at all and the Kosciuszko post, commanded by Capt. Runyan, packed up yesterday at
noon and headed by their band returned
home. Other posts followed them and this morning simultaneous were enroute.
Their grievances were varied. Some
complained that they came here understanding that the payment of the fifty
cent register fee was optional. The Warsaw folks believed it that way and Captain Runyan had to pay for twenty-
five or thirty of his command. Others
said they paid the registration fee and
then could not get enough to eat, while
still others were fighting mad at and
flatly contradicted this special dispatch
which was sent to all the metropolitan
papers.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 20.—Quite
an exciting episode occurred at Camp Grant this afternoon, caused by the
sheriff of Wells county appearing on the
ground with warrants for the arrest of Scott Swann, president; Thomas Sullivan, secretary, and James Harper, quartermaster of the State Veterans' Association. The warrants cited them to appear at Bluffton, to answer to a charge of criminal libel on an indictment
sworn out by Col. J. W. Young, adjutant general of the same association.

The soldiers in the camp, headed by
Col. C. A. Zollinger, state pension agent,
surrounded the sheriff, and prevented
his serving the warrants. The sheriff
returned to Bluffton for re-enforcements,
and is determined to make the arrests
to-morrow.

The soldiers claim they will prevent
him. The conflict between the civil and
military authorities is looked forward to
with great interest. It is understood
Young has sworn out warrants in Black-
ford county on the same charge, and
officers from that county are expected.
It looks as though to-morrow will eclipse
Monday's sham battle by one more real.

The soldiers deny emphatically any
connection with the controversy of the
reunion people with Dr. Young. They
saw no sheriff on the grounds, knew of
no attempt to arrest Messrs. Sullivan, Swann and Harper, neither would they
have interfered with one. They object
to such reports as that published above
going to their homes and denounce it
roundly.

All these complaints were discussed
on the street, and added to the absence
of Jones, Small and Ingersoll, created a
huge kick that it will take Fort Wayne a good many years to redeem
and our people may as well acquaint
themselves with the cold truth.

THE SHAM BATTLE.

The scenes of revolution about the
scarcity of food and lack of accommo-

ditions, which Capt. Scott Swann quitted
yesterday, were renewed this morning
with more anger than ever. The old
veterans and young men read the "riot
net," as they styled it, to the encamp-
the camp, and all day every outgoing
train was crowded with people sore and
disgusted with their treatment here.

Notwithstanding all this the sham battle advertised opened about 3:00 this afternoon in the presence of possibly 20,000
people. The engagement was planned
after the battle of Fort Donaldson, and
was to represent it as closely as the facilities permitted.

After much maneuvering the forces
faced each other. Captain J. H. Rohan,
of this city, was in command of the
union forces, while Captain O'Leary, of Michigan, led the rebel side. There
was a plan of battle arranged and
signals for the fight. The commanders are gullible Irish soldiers and prediction
were made that Captain Rohan would
bear the military laurels from the field.

The members of Governor Gray's staff
were aides to the rival commanders and
they in turn summoned corporals to
their side. Adjutant General Koontz
was commander of camp, and Captain Frank Hawley was officer of the day, his
men having combined with the Jackson Cadeets. General Rosecrans reviewed the conflict from a carriage and much interest was manifested by the assembled multitude, which occupied the
grand stand, stood in carriages and
formed a circle about the battle ground.

STRAY SHOTS.

All the county offices were closed this
afternoon.

The ground was wet and sloppy in
many places.

The Pittsburgh road brought in the
largest crowd.

The fair name of our city received a
sad blow yesterday.

The McClung post and one of the Jackson companies returned home this
morning.

The Ohio troops charged a party of
noisy drummers from their quarters Saturday night.

It will take years for Fort Wayne to
undo the damage that was done our city
by yesterday's work.

The Wabash company closed their
shops at noon to give the men an opportunity to attend the sham battle.

General Phil Sheridan has a penchant
for old coins. He has a very fine collection of them, which he prizes highly.

Neither Sam Jones, Sam Small or Bob
Ingersoll made their appearance yesterday. Dr. Young has his faults, and
many of them, but he told the truth
about these gentlemen.

Col. C. A. Zollinger yesterday placed
Adjutant General Koontz in command
of camp Grant and left for Indianapolis.
He was called there on important official
business as the pension payments are being made.

Thousands of people returned home
yesterday disappointed and disgusted.
They thought surely they would see Sam
Jones, as advertised. Many remarked
at the different depots before they took
the train, that they were done with Fort Wayne forever.

General Sheridan recently made his
annual visit to his aged mother at Somerset, Ohio, the General's birthplace.
Mrs. Sheridan is 87 years old and is still
active mentally and physically. The village was profusely decorated in honor of
the distinguished hero of Winchester.

Five men who gambled at the reunion
grounds were fined by Justice Franco
to-day.

Someway the crowd was larger than
last year. As far as the eye could see
the ground was covered with people.

The crowd to-day helped them out
and closed the reunion with a big financial success. The promoters will clear several thousand dollars.

Four strangers who held a side show on the grounds yesterday were fined by Justice Franco for following their usual avocation on Sunday.

The Emmet rifles attended high mass at the cathedral yesterday under escort of the Catholic Knights. Mr. John Mohr closed the services with "Sherman's march to sea" on the grand organ.
